

F A L L 2 0 0 9

the WILD ROSE INN

NEWSLETTER

Happenings!

The outdoor summer concert series was a great success! Be sure to plan for next year. Especially the second annual Old Time Musica Festival on August 14, 2010.

*December 19th offers "Christmas in the Sierra" a heartwarming musical with David John and the Comstock Cowboys
The First Annual Genoa Cowboy Poetry and Music Festival takes place April 29-May 1, 2010*

What's happening at the Wild Rose Inn? The Inn is still offering it's notable Bed and Breakfast experience. Downturn in the economy has hit us all but rates at the Wild Rose Inn have been reduced by 20%.

In addition, the Inn is available as a vacation rental. A perfect spot for a family reunion, a ski group, a bicycle group. Check the rates*

What is there to do in Genoa?

Experience the quaint shops, the Country Store, Nevada's Oldest Thirst Parlor, La Ferme (a five star French restaurant and the two beautiful parks. Carson Valley Trails has expanded a network of hiking trails along the foothills and the Nature Conservancy is developing and restoring the River Fork Ranch on Genoa Lane. What better way to explore the outdoors!

Quotes from Guests

"When I woke up I felt the comfort of home but I wasn't home. I looked out the window and the sun shone on the mountains in a beautiful rainbow of greens and browns. All my worries drifted away. A smile came to my face." 2009

"Thank you for making our wedding day so special. For all of the help with referrals and for your awesome energy.

"We had a magical time and will look forward to seeing you again soon!" 2006

"What a wonderful place to stay. Great atmosphere, great host, great food. What more could one want." 2007